EXANDAS

Senior Relationship Manager (Partner)

Exandas is an innovative and dynamic multi-family office with headquarters in Bäch SZ and a representative office at Bahnhofstrasse in Zurich, which is specialised in private equity, asset management and investment advisory as well as financial consulting.

Our clients are primarily high net worth individuals, families and entrepreneurs from the markets of Central and Eastern Europe (CEE), Russia, Greece, the UK and Switzerland.

For the further expansion of our business activities, we are looking for entrepreneurial personalities who would like to participate in their own success.

Requirements and areas of responsibility

- You have an existing client portfolio of UHNWI/HNWI clients and are interested in expanding this with your contacts
- Your area of responsibility includes the acquisition of your own client portfolio and its sustainable management and development
- You have extensive expertise in investment and asset management and are familiar with the legal requirements for cross-border activities in the area of investment advisory
- You are a communicative team player with a high degree of independence and self initiative
- You want to inspire your clients with outstanding client experiences and provide independent advice

We will support you in building up your upcoming, exciting and self-determined new challenge with our professional and dynamic organisation as well as a network of selected partners in various areas.

For further information and to apply please contact Mrs. Ida Volk-Heinrichs, Exandas AG, hr@exandas.ch, T +41 44 221 97 50

Needless to say, all contacts are treated with the utmost discretion.
